

Media, Research, and Reading Specialist

- Develop and implement curriculum and related activities for the media center, including computer courses.
- Teach computer classes.
- Operate and maintain the media center (library) and computer lab, along with all equipment and materials, including acquiring, classifying, marking, safeguarding, and stocking the media items consistent with certification and instructional standards.
- Serve as an instructional leader on all Academy reading issues.
- Assist Word of Life teachers in assessing, designing, and providing reading and reading comprehension programs and individual assistance.
- Foster a love for learning in the areas of reading, language and research. Provide assistance to students with reading and reading comprehension strategies.
- Assist with horizontal and vertical curriculum design, implementation, coordination, and assessment in the reading, reading comprehension, research, technology, and language areas.
- Undergraduate degree in education, especially curriculum development, library science, reading specialist or masters degree in related areas strongly preferred as well as certification and previous teaching experience.